Become Cooperating Organisation

Do you agree that Montessori is the Pathway to Social Change, capable of leading us to a more harmonious and peaceful world? Then join us in Prague for the 2017 International Montessori Congress. Through dialogue, solidarity and collaboration, we have the collective power to effectively and positively change the world.

You are invited to Prague, July 27 – 30, 2017, and we can assure you that after the congress you will be bursting with ideas, and ready to be an agent of positive social change.

How can you become a Cooperating Organisation?

Publicity

- Place a linked Congress logo on your website.
- Provide a complimentary exhibitor table for a 2017 Congress representative at one of your major events this year, or early next year.
- Include Congress publicity with event/conference registration packets.
- Allow for a brief Congress presentation and announcement during one of your major events this year, or early next year.
- Share details about the Congress with your national database on a regular basis.
- Help us by providing additional publicity of the Congress.
- Suggest 4 people to help the Congress evaluate programming proposals.

Volunteers

Provide a minimum of 5 on-site volunteers during the Congress.

Proposals to speak

Help secure 10 or more programming proposals for a presentation or workshop at the Congress.

Funding

Cooperating Organisations can contribute either by giving a financial gift of €4500/$5000, by providing equivalent in-kind services, or a combination of the two.

In Exchange for Your Support

- Cooperating Organisations receive (1) student registration for every (10) organisational members who register.*
- You will receive one VIP dinner ticket and the opportunity to network and exchange ideas with many important global Montessori leaders.
- Your logo will be featured in all major Congress publications, promotional materials and signage.
- Your logo will be included on the Congress website and linked it to the organiser's homepage.
- A 2x2 meter booth at the Congress Exhibition.

* If a student registration to the Congress does not apply to your organisation, please contact the Congress Secretariat at info@montessoricongress2017.org to discuss additional options.
