Keynote Speakers

SELF
The basis for peace

Guadalupe Borbolla

Director of Training in Instituto Montessori de México A.C.

Guadalupe (Mexico/Spain) has all three AMI diplomas: 0-3, 3-6 and 6-12 and is an AMI trainer at the 3-6 level. In addition, she has participated in the Adolescent Orientation Studies offered by NAMTA/AMI. She directs courses in Mexico and Spain.

OTHERS
The family and education for peace

Irene Fafalios

Director of Training

Irene Fafalios has an MA in Social Anthropology from the University of Sussex, and obtained her AMI diplomas for the child 0-3, 3-6 and 6-12 at the AMI Centres of London, U.K. and Bergamo, Italy. She also attended the First Assembly of Educateurs sans Frontières in Italy. Ms Fafalios now runs the AMI Training Centre "The Montessori Lab" in Athens and two Montessori classes for children 3-6.

SOCIETY
The agents
of social change

Scilla Elworthy

World-renowned peace activist
& Nobel Peace Prize nominee

Scilla Elworthy founded the Oxford Research Group in 1982 to develop effective dialogue with nuclear weapons decision-makers, and set up Peace Direct in 2002 to support local peace-builders in conflict areas. She was nominated three times for the Nobel Peace Prize.

UNIVERSE
Peace and ecological unity

Paul Gilding
